The Senior Class of 1973 dedicates this yearbook to Garvin Stevens, who in his senior year sacrificed his great love for sports and his great love for "getting involved" in all phases of school and community life for critical but necessary back surgery. As Garvin said, "It is just another step on the 'Ladder of Life,' and to obtain superiority one must sweat and toil and overcome obstacles like this. . . . To reach the highest point on life's highway one must encounter blowouts and rocky paths to attain his goal."

Garvin, through your strength and your faith in God you have overcome this obstacle. As a memory of your achievement and as proof of our love and esteem, we, your fellow classmates, dedicate to you this book, PEOPLE '73.

You see, it's like this.

Hoo, Boy!

Cool! It!
They're looking!

Oh, wow!

Where are the comics?

You're kidding!

This is living!!

Somebody's following me.

Look at me, I'm a tree!!

Well, what do you know??

Very Interesting

No, not here silly!

WE'RE THE BEST, AS YOU
CAN SEE!!!!!!!

Homework, ick!

Love letters to whom???

Look at us BEAUTIFUL people. Seniors, of course!

Huh?

Look! !

This work is something else!

Let's go!

Please don't touch my ears!

How was that, Your Majesty?

Gee, I hope mine wins!

What IS the answer?

Do we hafta sing it again?

He's lookin'!

Ahh!

Remember the sixth grade?

Elementary Memories

Did you know...?

You see, girls, it's like this.

Boy, do those guys need help!

Ain't that cute!

Can you believe this?

A 10 o'clock scholar?

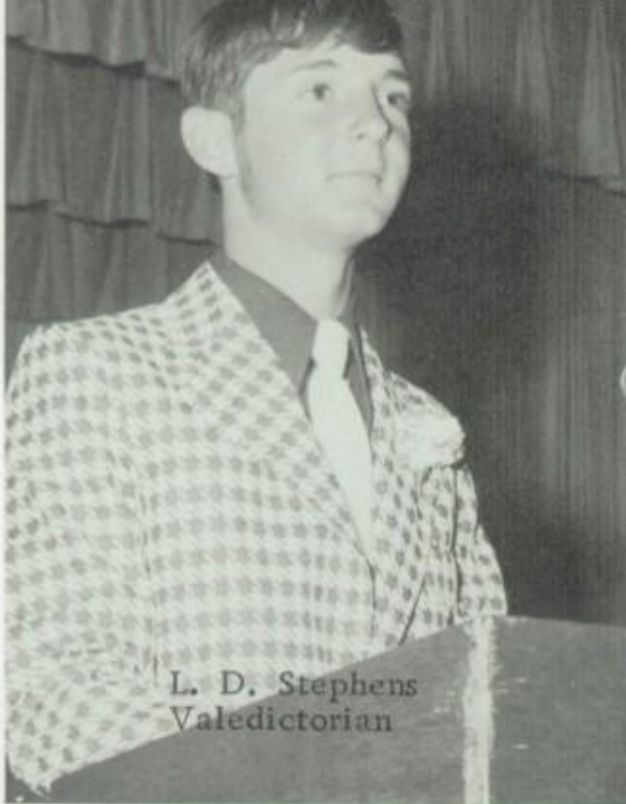

Not bad, but...

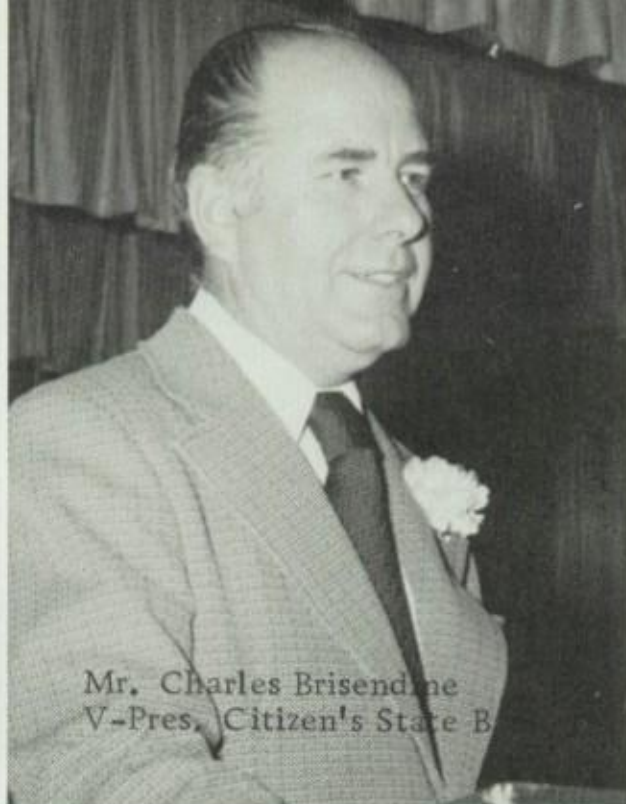

Go, Bobcats!
